COUNTERFEIT MONEY

What Disposition Can Be Made of It.

CIRCULAR TO SUB-TREASURERS.

An Important Document Issued By the Treasury Department at Washington. Other Dispatches From the National Capital.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—The following circular letter has been sent to the various sub-treasurers:

TREASURY OF THE UNITED STATES, WASHINGTON, Sept. 16, 1891.

Section 4 of the act of congress approved Feb. 10, 1891, provides:

That all counterfeiters of any of the obligations or other securities of the United States or of any foreign government, or counterfeiters of any of the coins of the United States or of any foreign government, that shall be found in the possession of any person without authority from the secretary of the treasury or other proper officer to have the same, shall be taken possession of by any authorized agent of the treasury department and forfeited to the United States, and disposed of in any manner the secretary of the treasury may direct.

In view of the law cited above, the secretary of the treasury directs that when counterfeit coins or notes are received by any officer of the treasury department, they may be returned to the sender canceled for the purpose of making reclamation on the person from whom the counterfeiters may have been received, and after such proper use has been made of them, they must be returned, through the officer canceling the same, to the chief of the secret service division, treasury department.

If the sender neglects to comply with the above request by not returning the canceled note or coin, any future counterfeiters received will not be returned, but will be forwarded direct to the secret service division.

E. H. NEBEKER, Treasurer United States.

Wanted Too Many Pensions.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—Peter Matthews, who draws a pension as veteran of the Fifth New York cavalry, was held for the grand jury yesterday in this city. He was discharged from the soldier's home at Hampton, Va., for attempting to secure another pension under a different name and yesterday was arrested here on the charge of filing a claim for still another pension.

Back to Chicago.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—The world's fair commissioners, having completed their business here, left the city for Chicago Thursday morning in a special car attached to the 11:30 train on the Baltimore and Ohio.

Reduction in Witness Fees.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—Attorney General Miller said yesterday that his annual report would show a reduction of 25 per cent in witness fees expenses.

BALMACEDA AND HIS SILVER.

The Are Both Safe, But Many Thousands of Miles Apart.

PARIS, Sept. 18.—A dispatch received here from Buenos Ayres announces that ex-President Balmaceda, of Chili, has arrived at Mendoza, capital of the Argentine province of that name, and situated not far from the Argentine frontier.

The same dispatch says that yesterday evening only fifty persons remained in custody throughout Chili, charged by the congressional party with crimes against the state.

Arrival of the Silver.

LONDON, Sept. 18.—The Chilean silver brought from Montevideo by the steamship Moselle, consigned by ex-President Balmaceda to various war material manufacturing firms was delivered safely this morning at the Bank of England, where it will remain by order of the court until the legal questions which have arisen in connection with it have been decided.

Accident at a Fire.

TOLEDO, Sept. 18.—Schraeder's planing mill on Erie street caught fire yesterday afternoon, and while the firemen were working on the inside an explosion of dust occurred, injuring three of them, burning off their mustaches, eyebrows and hair. A fourth man was nearly drowned by the bursting of hose. A boy named Ganzel was probably fatally injured. Damage by fire was only $1,000, fully insured.

Yesterday evening the Maumee boiler works, owned by William Connelly, was completely destroyed by fire. Loss, $30,000; partly insured.

The Peary Expedition.

RICHMOND, Sept. 18.—Mrs. Diebrich, mother of Mrs. Lieutenant Peary, who is now in the Arctic regions, received a letter from her daughter, saying that the exploring party is not in distress as has been reported. She states that the party has a comfortable house, sixty tons of coal, twenty oil stoves and five boats are in first-class condition. She says Lieutenant Peary is well, has entirely recovered from the injury to his leg, is not asking for aid, and expects to return in November, 1892.

Champions of the Western Association.

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 18.—The western base ball association held an extra meeting here yesterday. It was decided that the association's season closed last Sunday, when the Omaha team disbanded. Sioux City being in the lead at that time, the championship was awarded to it.

Death in a Bath Tub.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 18.—A young man named Taylor was yesterday found dead in the bath room at his home, at the corner of Highland avenue and Remond street, East Walnut Hills.

DAM DESTROYED BY DYNAMITE.

Summer Resort Damaged by Real Good People.

MUNCIE, Ind., Sept. 18.—Eaton Park is the name of a summer resort on the Missinewa river, at Eaton, in the northern part of this county, and it is much frequented by excursionists on the Sabbath day. The good old church people in that vicinity objected to this Sabbath desecration, and on several occasions the park property has been damaged. The boating surface is made by a large dam across the river, and a small steam-er plys thereon, besides a number of rowboats.

Unsuccessful efforts have been made to destroy the dam by fire and quicklime. Yesterday two immense charges of dynamite were exploded in rapid succession, completely demolishing the dam and hurling large stones and timbers long distances away. Neighboring windows were shattered and hundreds of people were badly frightened. One piece of timber fell upon the roof of John Snyder's residence, crushing it in. The loss to Carter & Company, owners of the dam, aggregates several hundred dollars.

BLUE AND GRAY

Shaking Hands at Cumberland Gap, Kentucky.

PINEVILLE, Sept. 18.—General George W. Morgan's Seventh Ohio regiment, is now in reunion at Cumberland Gap, fourteen miles south of here. Proper, it is a reunion of the blue and the gray. Fully 5,000 veterans of both armies have met in fraternal friendship, and last night bivouaced in this historic and picturesque gateway of the south, where thirty-one years ago they faced each other as warriors of two contending armies.

General Morgan, who was the commander of the Union forces in the Gap in 1862, is present and the subject of much personal attention. Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Kentucky, Tennessee, Virginia, and other states are represented, and thousands unborn when the war began are on hand to greet the veterans.

Mischief Done by Muratic Acid.

CHICAGO, Sept. 18.—A large bottle of muriatic acid did a great deal of mischief at the Anderson Printing company's establishment, at 67 Adams street, last night. The bottle was broken by an employee, and the acid covered the sixth floor of the block from which rose the pungent fumes. Captain Thomas Mullens, of Fire Insurance Patrol No. 1, and a squad of firemen went to ascertain the cause of the smoke, and while extinguishing the fire the men inhaled the poisonous vapor. All were shortly afterward affected with inflammation of the lungs, including Mullens, who died from the effects six hours later. The other men, William Garney, Edward Saxton, Thomas Carroll, William Devreux, Thomas O'Connor and Joseph Williams, will recover.

Private Watchman Murdered.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 18.—The body of Michael Tiernan, forty-five, brother-in-law of City Prosecuting Attorney Dierkes, and private watchman of the Missouri Pacific, was found about 7 o'clock Thursday morning lying between two lines of freight cars half between Convent and Chouteau streets, with one bullet hole in the back of the neck, a second in the left breast and a third in the left cheek, which was powder burned, showing that the murderer or murderers must have been very close. There is no clue, but it is supposed the deed was committed by tramps whom Mr. Tiernan had thrown out of the cars in the Missouri Pacific yards.

Paid for the Courtesies.

RALEIGH, Sept. 18.—A special to The Chronicle from Wilson, N. C., says: "Last fall a wealthy northern gentleman visited Rocky Mount. He was very fond of hunting, and Mr. C. H. Harris, ex-editor of the Rocky Mount Plaindealer, lent the stranger his dogs and showed him numerous courtesies. The stranger dropped dead on Monday, and when his will was opened it was found that he had bequeathed Mr. Harris $100,000 for courtesies and favors shown him, to be paid by his executors in United States currency. Mr. Harris left yesterday to get the money."

Every Person on Board Drowned.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 18.—The mystery surrounding the schooner Pannonia, so long overdue at this port from the Marshall islands, is at last cleared up. The boat sailed for San Francisco May 1, laden with a general cargo, and in addition to a crew of several hundred on board, Captain Lovedale's wife and three children. It is also stated that several missionaries had taken passage on the Pannonia to come to this city. The schooner was wrecked on a reef to the northwest of the Hawaiian islands and every soul on board was drowned.

A Peculiar Echo.

PRINCETON, Ind., Sept. 18.—At the summit of the ascent at the corner of Gibson and Monroe streets in this city, is an attractive and peculiar echo. A cluster of plum trees stand on the left, beside a barn and two dwellings, while on the right is a barn and a dwelling. The sidewalk is paved with plank, and some 200 feet from the summit of the hill a footman, on a quiet evening, can hear three, four and often five echoes of his footsteps. Loud clapping of hands produces a half dozen different reflections of the sound.

Coopers' Union Elect Officers.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 18.—The International Coopers' union yesterday elected the following officers: President, M. McGowan, Titusville, Pa.; first vice president, F. M. Ravenscroft, Indianapolis; second vice president, L. K. McChesney, Duluth; secretary, Philip Strong, Titusville, Pa.; treasurer, Fred Backhoff, Chicago; sergeant-at-arms, S. C. Warren, Fostoria, O. The convention will adjourn today.

BACK FROM EUROPE.

Chauncey M. Depew Arrives in New York City.

AN ENTHUSIASTIC WELCOME.

Officers and Employees of the New York Central Railroad Meet Him With a Band, and Listen to the Latest Stories Told by the Great Railroad President.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—The day that Chauncey M. Depew comes home from Europe has been a New York Central holiday these ten years or more. The officers and employees of the railroad hire the Sam Sloan and go down the bay with a band to cheer home their famous president, to hear his latest stories and to drink his very good health.

It was "Depew day" Wednesday, for this year, and none of the rights peculiar to it failed of observance due and meet, and Mr. Depew illumined the occasion with a running account of his journeying, told in his own fashion, alternate layers of solid observation and fun.

After getting Mr. Depew aboard the Sloan Commodore Van Arsdale, who always manages these things, extending the annual welcome of the employees, congratulated Mr. Depew on his escape from the temptations of bacarat and the plot of Turkish brigands. Mr. Depew, when he had complimented the Central people on the increasing prosperity of the railroad, showed how he avoided the bacarat snare by looking, this time, after the strange and dark things in Europe instead of its social phases and how he got away from the brigands, chiefly by luck.

Dressed in a grab which he described as a cross between a "costermonger and a pickpocket," Mr. Depew went slumming in the Whitechapel district and saw a depth of poverty and misery that took his breath away. The curse of the poor in England was unrestricted immigration, and the first lesson he had drawn from his tour was whether the United States was not making a great error in not increasing its barriers against the flood of old world paupers.

As to the brigand story, that came up in a trip he made with Mr. Cornelius Vanderbilt and two Vanderbilt boys through a desert 300 miles wide near the Balkan mountains. They went by the Oriental express, a flyer that made fifteen miles an hour, and was the pride and wonder of Turkey. Brigands made a practice of holding the train up and seizing wealthy passengers for ransom. If the ransom was not forthcoming they sent their captive home in sections, beginning with his ears and then his nose.

"I never knew such a magnificent opportunity for business to be so neglected," said Mr. Depew. "Here was Mr. Vanderbilt and his sons on that train and the brigands never peeped."

At Athens he stood on Mars hill and tried some Paulian eloquence on some Greeks who were mending a road, and they quit work for the day. One thing about Athens was an arrant fraud, and that was the maid of Athens. He went to look at about 2,000 of her, with a tin plate over his heart to preserve his affections, and found she was not good looking a bit.

The thing that attracted his attention most in France was the intense enthusiasm over everything Russian since Russia had taken the republic cordially by the hand.

"At every dinner, public and private," said Mr. Depew, "when the Charlotte Russe comes on the whole company gets up and sings the Russian national hymn."

After making some study of the Russian-Jewish problem, Mr. Depew concluded that the condition of the Jewish-Russian had not been improved by the protest of America, but on the contrary had been made worse than ever. At the same time Russia had taken on a coldness to America not known since the civil war.

Watching the Ohio Election.

Being asked in regard to the feeling on the McKinley tariff in Europe, Mr. Depew said:

"The only thing talked about in Europe, so far as America is concerned, is the Ohio election. They do not understand it as a state election. They only know that McKinley, the author of the tariff bill, is running for office. They believe that in his election is the whole issue of high or low tariff. They think if he succeeds then the McKinley bill is a fixture, but if he is defeated it will be repealed, the same as it would be with them by the defeat of the government, and there is a solid vote there against McKinley."

World's Fair.

In regard to the feeling in Europe on the world's fair, he said: "The world's fair commissioners were very kindly received in Europe; they were treated as diplomatic representatives of the government and accepted as such. There is no organization in Europe to acquaint exhibitors how to get to Chicago with their goods or to canvass industrial neighborhoods for exhibits. That is all to be done yet."

The reporter asked: "Do they feel kindly toward the world's fair?"

"It is hard to tell whether they do or not. The world's fair has had several things to contend with which are not dissipated. Of course, there is a distinct hostility on the part of manufacturers who have been hurt by the McKinley bill, and their dissatisfaction is detrimental to the fair. One circumstance which nearly paralyzed the movement for a while was the report that the contract labor law would be enforced against employees on all shipments of machinery sent here and that they would have to employ people here. This has been dissipated, but it was a long time before it was explained."

MURDERED BY HIGHWAYMEN.

A Desperate Attempt to Rob Two Men of $5,000.

NEVADA, Cal., Sept. 18.—S. Gallavotti, superintendent of the Derbee Drift mine, was murdered by highwaymen yesterday while coming to this city with $5,000 in gold bars just cleaned up at the mine. Gallavotti and J. D. Olstrom were in a buggy ascending the South Yuba river grade, six miles from this city, when a rifle shot was fired from the bank above. The bullet entered Gallavotti's head causing instant death.

Olstrom urged the horses up the grade just as a second shot was fired. The bullet struck one of the horses in the neck, but a turn in the road took the team out of the range of the shooters. On reaching the Mount Vernon House Olstrom left Gallavotti's body and hid the bullet in the brush. He then rode to the city and notified the officers. A squad of armed men have started for the scene of the murder.

A Tragic Death.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 18.—William Stinson, a young coupe driver, met death yesterday in a most tragic manner. While returning to his stable his vehicle collided with a similar one and he was thrown over the dasher. His left leg became entangled in the harness, and the horse, taking fright, galloped madly up the street. Stinson was dragged a long distance, and when the team was finally stopped he was dead and his head was battered into an almost unrecognizable mass. Stinson was twenty-three years old and leaves a widow and one child.

Foiled With the Wrong Man.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia., Sept. 18.—A. S. Bradley, who owns a farm in Taylor county on which there is a mortgage, received a blank from the census department asking for particulars. He refused to respond, but instead sent a letter to Mr. Porter at Washington to mind his own affairs. Bradley's letter was forwarded to the federal authorities in Iowa resulting in his arrest. Commissioner Hunter, of this city, held him in the sum of $200 to await the action of the federal grand jury.

Dr. Loring's Funeral.

SALEM, Mass., Sept. 18.—The funeral of Dr. Loring, formerly minister to Portugal, and ex-commissioner of agriculture, took place yesterday from the North (Unitarian) church. Previous to the services in the church a simple prayer was offered by Rev. Edmund B. Wilson at the Loring manor at Pickman Farm. The pall-bearers were Hon. William C. Endicott, Hon. William Cogswell, Hon. John D. Long, Hon. William W. Crapo, General E. S. Banks, Hon. Daniel Needham.

There Will Be No Strike.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 18.—At a conference yesterday afternoon of the window glass makers and a committee representing the workers, all differences were amicably settled. The workers withdrew their demand for an advance in wages, and the manufacturers agreed to pay last year's wages. The fires will be lighted and work begin in the window glass factories at an early date; the exact date, however, will be determined at a meeting of manufacturers to be held within a few days.

Artist Accidentally Killed.

CHICAGO, Sept. 18.—Artist Folge A. Bigelow, twenty-three years old, was instantly killed Wednesday evening by the accidental discharge of a revolver in the hands of his friend, Anthony L. Courtney. The letter was in the act of cleaning the revolver when his finger slipped from the trigger and the revolver was discharged. The bullet pierced young Bigelow's heart and he fell dead on the floor. Courtney is prostrated over the affair.

Financial Statement.

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 18.—The appraisers appointed by Judge Allen, of the district court of Wyandotte county, Kan., to ascertain the value of the assets of the suspended First National bank, of Kansas City, filed their report yesterday. The assets are appraised at $1,680. The liabilities of the bank are $34,000.

King Is to Be Hanged.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 18.—The motion for a new trial in the famous H. Clay King case was overruled by Judge Dubose, of the criminal court, and the defendant was sentenced to be hanged on Nov. 6. His attorneys have given notice of appeal to the supreme court.

Lumber Yards Burned.

WORCESTER, Mass., Sept. 18.—The buildings and stock in C. Baker & Company's lumber yard on Manchester street, were burned last night. Two locomotives on the Boston and Maine railroad adjoining were also destroyed. Loss is estimated at $100,000.

Chopped the Head Off His Daughter.

WINNIPEG, Man., Sept. 18.—A White-wood special to The Free Press says a settler named Westerlund, of New Stockholm, chopped the head off his three-year-old daughter yesterday with a broadax. He was insane at the time.

Defaulters Captured.

MARSHFIELD, Or., Sept. 18.—A dispatch from Gardiner, Or., states that Edward Albertson, the defaulting treasurer of the Fidelity Trust company, of Tacoma, and Fred Chandler, his accomplice, have been captured.

Electric Light Works Burned.

HASTINGS, Minn., Sept. 18.—Fire broke out in the weighing house of Smith & Thompson yesterday. The building, which was filled with grain, was burned, and the electric light works were also destroyed.

Struck by a Passenger Train.

WATERLOO, Ia., Sept. 18.—John Brubaker and Robert Ellingwood, farmers, were struck by a Burlington passenger train near Vinton yesterday. Brubaker was instantly killed and Ellingwood fatally injured.

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & McCARTHY,
Proprietors.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 1891.

By the way, what has become of Mr. Foster's fifty-two days' rain period?

Nor long ago, the Louisville Times reached Maysville the morning after publication. Now its subscribers receive it twenty-four hours after publication. New York papers are delivered here in the same time. Must be something the matter with mail service between the Falls City and Maysville.

The Chicago Journal is old enough and big enough to be better posted. It displayed its ignorance when it gave Major McKinley credit for placing quinine on the free list. If the Journal will interview Kentucky's member of the World's Fair commission, it will learn who took the tariff off of quinine.

Are honest men so few and far between or do the rascals and rogues all work their way into nice positions where they soon pocket the funds placed in their keeping and skip out? Defalcations seem to be more frequent now-a-days than they used to be. The latest rogue to skip out is Treasurer O'Brien, of the Catholic Knights of America, who got away with $65,000 or $75,000 of the society's funds during a period of four or five months. This has been a hard year on trust funds, truthfully observes the Louisville Times.

CARLISLE was a local option town a few years ago, but the people concluded they wanted a change and voted in favor of saloons. Judging by the news from up there, however, they will soon be wanting another change. The Mercury says: Carlisle people had the "exquisite pleasure" of witnessing a very disorderly and disgraceful closing of her last court day proceedings. Under the exhilarating influence of mean whisky, a lot of very noisy citizens congregated about the two bars and began to make themselves a general nuisance by cursing, blackguarding and fighting, and adding to their accomplishments a general defiance of the officers. We are not going to make ourselves unhappy by worrying over the matter, nor are we going to incur the ill pleasure of either party by "pitching into" any body, but we would take great pleasure in writing the obituary of some of those who have no regard for themselves or others. John Barleycorn is a bad citizen to fool with, and we are not going to incur his ill will nor that of his devotees. We hope, however, to see the day when he will not be here to curse our city, and seems like those of Monday night are calculated to hasten the time of his departure.

THERE appears to be serious trouble in the ranks of Kentucky Republicans. Col. W. O. Bradley has been forced, or has seen fit, to write a card denying the charge that he was a sulker during the last State campaign. He is very indignant at the idea that any one should believe him guilty of such conduct. He writes: "I have never been a camp follower or a dress parade soldier, but for more than twenty years have fought with the boys in the trenches, and the physical suffering I have endured, am enduring, and will probably endure the remainder of my life, is the result."

Speaking of the late contest, he says: "There was no reason why I should not have given the ticket hearty support. Every gentleman on it was politically and personally my friend."

This ought to settle the matter and quiet the Colonel's enemies, but the indications are that it will not. The simple fact of the matter is that Kentucky Republicans are always engaged in a lively scramble for the State's portion of the Federal patronage. When one of them makes a race for a State office, he always has an eye on some Federal appointment. The leaders of one of the factions are now trying to down Colonel Bradley, and they are at the bottom of the present attack on him. They think he has been "boss" long enough.

Judge Denny's organ at Lexington failed to publish the "Boss's" letter until requested to do so. The Leader is the organ of Kentucky Republicans, but it seems to want some one besides Bradley for boss.

The Kentucky Centennial.

Kentucky is already preparing to celebrate the completion of her first century as a State of the Union, although the time for the celebration is nearly nine months distant. Kentucky was the second State to be admitted, following Vermont by nearly a year; for the recent celebration at Bennington coincided neither with the date of the battle fought there, nor with the date of Vermont's acquisition of Statehood, the latter being March 4, 1791. Kentucky came in as the fifteenth State on June 1, 1792, and the celebration of the centennial of that event in her history will take place next summer. An elaborate celebration is already planned. The next State in the historic line is Tennessee, which is Kentucky's junior by four years, to a day. No other State's centennial occurs in the present century, but Ohio will have its turn early in the next.—New York Tribune.

MUST WALK THE PLANK.

The Democratic Committeemen Who Failed to Support Party Nominees to Be Fired.

There will be many changes in the Democratic organizations throughout Kentucky this fall, remarks the Louisville Post. The Democratic majority in this State has been so large for many years that even members of the Democratic committee have, while still retaining their positions as Democratic committee, have been very apathetic, and in some cases have even voted for Republicans. This would not be allowed in any other State, and the Democratic State Committee, through its official head, Col. John B. Castleman, has made an important ruling, which was issued this week and sent to the Democratic committeemen of the 119 counties of the State. The communication is as follows:

HEADQUARTERS DEMOCRATIC STATE CENTRAL COM.,
LOUISVILLE, KY., September 15, 1891.

To Chairmen of County and Legislative District Committees in Kentucky—Sirs: From many counties in Kentucky complaints have come to the Democratic State Central Committee that precinct committeemen have often neglected their party obligation, and have sometimes voted against the party nominee. We want no such men on the party's committees. The Democratic party demands party loyalty from its representatives, and is not safe in the hands of men who are in any way untrue to the party's interests.

Respect for the opinion of the majority is essential in political organizations, and the man whose own views are considered by him to be above his party should hold no party trust. He that accepts the position of precinct committeeman thereby obligates himself as a man of honor to protect the party's welfare in his precinct.

The Chairmen and members of precinct committees in the respective counties are respectfully requested to furnish to this committee by October 1st next: First, the names of the county committeemen who did not vote for the party's nominee in the August election; second, the names of precinct committeemen who were not vigilant in the party's behalf, and third, a recommendation of suitable men, one from each precinct (not officeholders or candidates for office) who are true, working Democrats.

By order of the Democratic State Central Committee.
JOHN B. CASTLEMAN, Chairman.

Kentucky's Next Governor.

"If a vote were taken to decide who was the most popular delegate in the Constitutional convention," says the Louisville Times' Frankfort correspondent, "I have not the least doubt that Colonel George Washington, of Newport, would be the winner, hands down. He is ever and to all the same genial, jovial, warm-hearted gentleman, whose good humor radiates from his prepossessing person in a manner that makes life a pleasure to those who are so fortunate as to be brought in contact with him. In the most acrimonious of the debates he has never lost his head upon, these charming attributes. Everybody likes him, and here is a graceful tribute to him the accomplished correspondent of a Louisville paper, who was asked to write something in his album:

"To Colonel George Washington: The most graceful orator of the convention, his eloquence, ability and striking individuality placed him where he belonged, in the foremost rank of a body singularly favored with distinguished men; while his engaging personality has enshrined him in the hearts of all who have had the good fortune to be admitted to the charmed circle of his friendship. He would add luster to any other name than Washington. Lovingly subscribed by his friend and admirer.
JOHN A. BAIRD,
Correspondent of Louisville Post.
Frankfort, Sept. 16, 1891."

August Weather.

The following is taken from the bulletin of the Kentucky State Weather Bureau just issued for the month of August: "The average temperature of the State as determined from the tri-daily observations was 72.9 degrees; about 2 degrees less than the normal for the month. The highest temperature reported was 98 degrees, at Shelbyville on the 10th, and at Princeton on the 14th; the lowest, 43 degrees, at Springfield on the 29th. The average monthly range of temperature was 45.6 degrees; the greatest, 54 degrees, at Shelbyville, and the least, 38 degrees, at Middlesborough. The average warmest days of the month were the 9th, 10th and 14th; the average coolest, the 25th, 28th and 29th.

Precipitation—The average precipitation of the State for the month was 5.82 inches, about two inches greater than the normal. The greatest precipitation reported was 9.23 inches, at Earlinton, and the least, 2.72 inches at Shelbyville. Very heavy rains were general throughout the State, from the 17th to the 21st. They were in most cases accompanied by severe thunder storms, and in some few instances by destructive winds.

A Minister's Opinion.

Mr. Jacob Connor, a German Baptist minister at Royer's Ford, Montgomery County, Pa., says: "I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for diarrhoea, colic and cramp in the stomach. I have never used any medicine with better or more satisfactory results. I consider it one of the best ever used in our family. For sale by Power & Reynolds.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

For the Farmer.

There is a splendid crop of corn and tobacco between Johnson's Junction and Flemingsburg, but an early frost would damage some of it.

Carlisle Mercury: "Nicholas County sends greetings to her friends throughout the land. She has the finest crop of tobacco that ever grew out of her soil, and her corn crop was scarcely ever equalled. Her garden products are immense, her cattle and hogs are fat and fine, and the only complaint she has to make is the low price of her mule colts. Don't forget old Nicholas is 'in it.'"

Ripley Bee: "The farmers are all busy cutting tobacco. Some fine, dry weather is greatly needed to cure it and ripen the late tobacco and the corn. The tobacco crop this year is uneven in quality and the greater part of it will be short and inferior, but if the fine weather holds out there will be an improvement. The yield of corn this year will be perfectly immense and of splendid quality, if it ripens well."

Fuel Gas.

A company has been organized at Maysville for the purpose of manufacturing fuel gas, and an exhibition test of their machine will be made to-day. They claim that they have succeeded in making the gas so cheap that it is only a question of time when every town will be using it for light and fuel. It is said that with this machine pure gas can be made at a cost of 4 or 5 cents per 1,000 feet.—Winchester Sun.

Willis L. Ringo went to Maysville Tuesday to inspect the new gas plant now in operation in that city, where fuel gas is manufactured at an expense of less than 5 cents per thousand feet and at the rate of a thousand feet per minute. According to the report of some Cincinnati experts who recently visited Maysville and inspected the works, the system of producing the gas is a very superior one. Seventy-eight feet of gas is made from a pound of coal. After a thorough inspection, it is found that it would be a profitable institution in Ashland, such an industry may be established.—Ashland Signal.

Miss Mary E. Bannon.

The many friends of Miss Mary E. Bannon will learn with sincere sorrow of her death. She passed away last evening at 8 o'clock at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bannon, near Mayslick, after a lingering illness. She was a graduate of the Academy of the Visitation, this city, and was one of the brightest and most gifted young ladies ever educated at that institution. Many poems from her pen have appeared in print, and were greatly admired for the ennobling sentiments they contained.

The funeral services will be held at the Mayslick Catholic Church to-morrow at 10 a. m. and will be conducted by Rev. Father Hickey. Burial at Washington.

Charged With Burglary.

Bob Wilson, colored, was arrested at Augusta yesterday afternoon by Deputy Marshal Stockdale and brought here and lodged in the station house. He is wanted at Vanceburg on a charge of burglarizing Fisher's store a few nights since.

Captain Hefflin heard he was at Covington and went down yesterday to arrest him. On passing through Augusta he saw Wilson, and afterwards telegraphed to Mr. Stockdale, who went down and made the arrest.

Wilson seems to be a "born thief," as he has been sent up the road twice from this place of late years for stealing. He sometimes goes by the name of Warner.

Railway News.

H. W. Fuller, General Passenger Agent of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, began his career as a brakeman.

When trains are whirled across the country 436 miles in 426 minutes, as was done over the Central between New York and Buffalo, the need for flying machines is not apparent.

The work of laying the Kentucky Central between Maysville and Paris with steel rails has been completed. New ties are being put in, bridges repaired, tunnels enlarged and the road is being placed in first-class condition.

Gratifying to All.

The high position attained and the universal acceptance and approval of the pleasant liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs, as the most excellent laxative known, illustrate the value of the qualities on which its success is based and are abundantly gratifying to the California Fig Syrup Company.

American Bible Society.

The officers and Executive Committee of the Maysville and Mason County Bible Society are requested to meet in the lecture room of the Central Presbyterian Church Friday evening, September 18th, at 7:30 o'clock. The various pastors of the city are Vice Presidents, Mr. John Duley Secretary, Mr. James Smith Treasurer and Depositary, Messrs. C. Shultz Wood, L. M. Mills, W. H. Sauvery, A. M. J. Cochran and John W. Boulden members of the Executive Committee.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

Over One Thousand Added to the Membership in Kentucky the Past Year—New Officers.

The annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of the Knights of Pythias of Kentucky was held at Louisville this week. The representatives from the various lodges were handsomely entertained by the Louisville members and enjoyed their stay in the Falls City.

The reports show that during the past year over 1,000 new members have been added in this State, the membership now being 5,000. At the present time there are eighty-six lodges in Kentucky; seven of these being located in Louisville. The order is popular all over the country, and the aggregate rolls of each State will show a list of members numbering over 350,000. Outside of the order proper, the Knights maintain a Uniform Rank and the Endowment Rank, but both of these are optional.

The election of officers resulted as follows:

Grand Chancellor—Dr. B. B. Andrews, of Russellville.

Grand Vice Chancellor—John L. Chamberlain, of Maysville.

Past Grand Chancellor—Joseph W. Pryor, of Lexington.

Grand Prelate—A. D. Rodgers, of Hopkinsville.

Grand Keeper of Records and Seal—Wade Sheltman, of Louisville.

Grand Master-at-Arms—T. B. Mathews, of Petersburg.

Grand Inside Guard—Julius Jahn, of Louisville.

Grand Outside Guard—J. R. Buck, of Ludlow.

Grand Trustee—H. C. Kehoe, of Mt. Sterling.

Supreme Representative—Edward Atkinson, of Henderson.

The Kentucky Brigade also held a meeting, at which Gen. George E. Curry, commanding the Kentucky Pythian Brigade, presided. Reports were read showing that the affairs of the Brigade are in a flourishing condition.

The Pythian Brigade is officered as follows, as to field and staff:

General Commanding—George E. Curry.

Colonel and Assistant Adjutant General—W. C. Quinby.

Colonel and Chief of Staff—James N. Lloyd, (of Maysville).

Colonel and Assistant Quartermaster General—James W. McCracken.

Major and Aid-de-Camp—George L. Heyman.

Major and Aid-de-Camp—Grant Green, Jr.

First Regiment—J. B. Quin, Colonel; R. Mann, Lieutenant Colonel.

Second Regiment—James Hefflin, (of Maysville), Colonel; John Woodall, Major.

Third Regiment—T. J. Smith, Colonel.

The Brigade voted to have the full report, including rosters of the Thirty-fourth Uniform Division, printed for distribution, and took measures for placing the Uniform Rank on a separate and self-sustaining basis. Sir Knight Captain J. W. Reccius, of Louisville, was made Chairman of a special committee to formulate a plan looking to this end.

The condition of the Uniform Rank throughout the State was reported as never better in the history of the order. Nine new divisions have been instituted during the past year and 262 new members added. The total membership is now 1,212, and preparations are being made to form the fourth regiment, there being more than enough divisions for three regiments.

Judge Phister is a member of the Committee on Laws, and County Clerk Pearce was appointed to a position on the Finance Committee.

The new Grand Chancellor named the standing committees for the ensuing year, the Chairmen of which are as follows:

Board of Advisers—W. W. Blackwell, Henderson.

Committee on Laws—John W. Carter, Owensboro.

On State of the Order—T. M. Cardwell, Harrodsburg.

On Fraternal Correspondence—W. L. Smith, Newport.

On Appeals and Grievances—John C. Thomasson, Henderson.

On Printing and Supplies—Wade Sheltman, Louisville.

On Necrology—Dr. R. L. Agnew, Sebree City.

On Uniform Rank—Jac. Krauss, Lexington.

The Grand Lodge adjourned to meet in Harrodsburg on the third Tuesday in September, 1892.

SUED FOR A SNUG SUM.

The State National Bank Seeks to Recover Over Four Thousand Dollars.

Suit was filed in the U. S. Court at Cincinnati Wednesday by State National Bank, of Maysville, against R. H. Ellison, of Manchester, and others, to recover $4,087 due on a promissory note. On October 14, 1889, defendant Ellison made an assignment and compromised with his creditors on the basis of 90 cents on the dollar. A dividend of 20 per cent. has been declared, and a further 10 per cent. dividend is about to be declared, payable to the creditors except complainant.

J. P. Shelton, W. A. Blair, W. H. Powell, the Fourth National and Ohio Valley National Banks, of Cincinnati, and the Farmers' Bank, of Manchester, Ohio, are the other creditors of Ellison, and are made parties to the suit. Complainant prays for the issuance of an injunction against the declaration of further dividends and for the rendering of an account of all transactions since the assignment.

SAYS the Augusta Vindicator: "Dr. T. S. Bradford delivered Judge Minor of a thirty-foot tape worm Sunday. The Judge is all right now, and his appetite is as good as ever, notwithstanding the loss of his lengthy appetizer."

CAPTAIN GEORGE M. THOMPSON orders the BULLETIN sent him at Lucille, Wirt County, W. Va. He writes that he is well and doing well; owns a good farm, and his crops are all fine this year. He is also postmaster of Lucille.

SEVERAL members of the Third street M. E. Church have presented their pastor, Rev. Thomas Hanford, D. D., an elegant solid gold enameled Knight Templar charm, as a token of their esteem. He is very grateful for the souvenir, and values it very highly.

THE case of the Maysville and Big Sandy Railroad Company against Fitch, taken up from Lewis County, has been transferred from the Superior Court to the Court of Appeals. The case of Taylor versus Taylor, taken up from Bracken County, has been argued and submitted.

MR. O. C. HEDGES, of Paris, and Miss Florence Adair were married yesterday at 1 o'clock p. m. at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Adair, in the East End. Rev. B. W. Mebane officiated. The happy couple left shortly after the ceremony for their home at Paris.

MRS. CHARLES BELLEW, wife of the foreman of the Alabama Great Southern Railroad shops at Birmingham, is the happy and thriving mother of four little babies, all born September 15. Three of the quartet are boys, the other a girl, and all doing splendidly. The mother is average size, is a little over twenty years of age, and had never before given birth to a child.

THE wicked editor of Harrodsburg Sayings makes this statement: During "Conference we were handed a pamphlet by one of our Methodist brothers. We looked at it and turned it over. On one side it bore the legend "Woman's Work in the Church," on the other an image of a shapely female leg encased in a neat fitting shoe, from which we were satisfied that his argument was built from the ground up."

THE city of Maysville will be within twenty days the best known city in America. The recent fuel gas invention will create more excitement throughout the country than all the oil and gas wells put together. Frank Owens Hardware Company have just received, clean and fresh, their vast stock of guns, imported direct from foreign makers, breech-loaders and muzzle-loading; also American makes, all of which they will sell very low.

PROPOSALS will be received for marking streets and numbering houses in the city of Maysville by the Committee of Internal Improvements until the 25th day of September, 1891. All parties desiring to bid are requested to do so promptly, and leave sealed bids with the Chairman of the committee. Copies of the ordinance will be furnished by the Chairman. The committee reserve the right to reject any and all bids.

s15d5t THOS. M. WOOD, Chairman.

E. W. HARDING was sent here by Cincinnati parties a few days ago to inspect the fuel gas works. Mr. Harding superintended the construction of the East End gas works at Cincinnati that cost about $2,000,000, and is said to be an expert on the gas question. When told what could be done by the new process at the works in the West End he laughed at the idea and said it was impossible. He went down and a test was made. He was surprised at the wonderful result. In his report to the men who sent him here he says that seventy-eight feet of gas can be made out of a pound of coal by this new process. Under the old process a pound of coal produces five or six feet.
